

102

CONTROL ARMS

The control arm is a critical component of the vehicle's suspension system. This particular assembly is the main connection between the wheel and the vehicle frame work. In conjunction with all of the other components on the vehicles suspension system, the control arm helps to contribute to vehicle overall ride experience. This includes, proper alignment, reduction in noise and vibration and finally a smooth ride.

5 TOP 5
PRODUCT

New hardware and bushings included (where applicable).

Some control arms come with ball joint dependent on OE application.

Steel, Iron, or Aluminum construction ensures durability and long lasting rust & corrosion resistance. (application dependent)

Direct Replacement to OE, ensuring the right fit for a trouble free installation.

APPLICATION SPECIFIC SOURCING

Catalog applications are vehicle specific per Original Equipment